64/05 MINUTES OF PREVIOUS MEETING

The minutes of the previous meeting were agreed and signed off by the Chairman for the records.

65/05 MATTERS ARISING – There were no recorded matters arising.

66/05 CORRESPONDENCES

(Secretary) Woodland Trust had yet again issued another book of raffle tickets for the Spring Draw (Committee declined to participate unanimously). Wycombe District Council have stated their intention to resurface the steep footpath leading up from Marlow Bottom Road to Beechtree Avenue, work to commence around Easter time.

67/05 TREASURERS REPORT

Treasurer was absent, therefore no financial report was given. Chairman commented on monies to be claimed for November meeting at The Three Horseshoes. Robin St.John Smith remarked on the outstanding amount for the MBVRA website expenditure. Treasurer to resolve.

68/05 PLANNING APPLICATIONS

Chas Snare outlined various applications that had been entered onto the Council's listings, nothing was deemed noteworthy to require action or further review.

69/05 SIR STEVE REDGRAVE PROJECT

(Secretary) Discussed the outstanding Onyx application form. Agreed to further re-visit the document and attempt to submit for review by the end of the second week of February. It was further mentioned that Waitrose may be able to assist with community projects / funding.

70/05 SUCCESSION PLANNING

Jennie Browning volunteered to take up the role of Vice Chairman. Chairman proposed the motion and Patrick Thomas seconded it. It was further agreed by those members present that the role could be safely considered a 1 term position, in order to provide an exit should this be desired.

71/05 WEBSITE ADVANCEMENT

Website – Suggestions were thin on the ground, nothing new being noted from those present

72/05 ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Secretary to make contact with the Village Hall booking line to secure April 20th for the AGM if possible. Robin St.John Smith to contact the Rebellion Brewery to discuss possible interest in their support and taking up the guest speaker position.

Projects for 2005 /2006 were suggested as:-

- Cleaning and tidying of bridleways and footpaths
- Pond clearing and tidying up
- An encroachment inspection walk programme around the Valley's wooded perimeters
